

Center of Southwest Studies Summer Lecture Series 2017

“A Year in the Life of the West”

Wednesdays – 1:30 pm, Lyceum Room, #120

Free and open to the public.

June 14 – Lecture: 1936: Adventure in Crooked Canyons – Ansel Hall’s Radio Address on the Rainbow Bridge Monument Valley Expedition

Presenter: Jack Turner, Author Landscapes on Glass

July 19 – Lecture: 1887: Telluride and the Sheridan Mine Come of Age

Presenter: Rudy Davison, Historian

July 26 – Lecture: 1917: The Great Bisbee Deportation

Presenter: Mike Todt, Historian

August 9 – Lecture: 1864: The Navajo Long Walk to Bosque Redondo

Presenter: Shelby Tisdale, Director, Center of Southwest Studies

August 23 – Lecture: 1868: The Impact of Bosque Redondo on Navajo Silverwork and Southwestern Indian Jewelry

Presenter: Dexter Cirillo, Author Southwestern Indian Jewelry