The Center is pleased to offer its first ever summer lecture series, with special thanks to Judith Reynolds for spearheading the series. All lectures will be held in the Lyceum, Room 120 except where noted. Lectures will begin at 1:30 pm.

June 18

Jay Harrison, Jews, Christians and Moors in the Southwest Borderlands: Persistence of Religion and Culture

July 2

Barbara Klema, How a Broken Wagon Wheel Led to the Foundation of the Taos Society of Artists in 1915

July 9

Judith Reynolds, Mabel Dodge Luhan: Utopian Dreams and Taos Realities

July 23

Bob Griffith, 1964 - 50 Years and Counting: Examining the Cultural Wheels of Change

August 6

Emeritus Professor Duane Smith with Jay Harrison
Looking Back at 50 Years of the Center of Southwest Studies
CSWS Museum, 1:30 pm

August 20

Syl Allred, Tassel-Eared Squirrels and Ponderosa Pines: A Relationship of Necessity

Events and Exhibits

June 19

nomad bahane’. photography of the Trek by venaya yazzie (dine’/ hopi)
Exhibit Opening, Delaney Library 4:00-6:00 pm

June 21

Annual Summer Solstice Window Viewing
At the dawn of the summer solstice, morning light illuminates our custom designed window casting a spiral of light across our gallery walls in a dazzling display. Light refreshments and music provided.
CSWS Museum, 6:00 am

August 4 - 5

Southwest Old Growth Forests Conference
Leading scientists and naturalists at the forefront of research and documentation in this field will examine old growth forest issues. Visits to some of these old growth stands scheduled for August 6th.
Community Concert Hall

August 14

Center’s Summer Party at the Rochester Hotel and Bar
Join the Center at our party downtown! Bring a friend or two to learn more about the Center. Join us for food, music and fun in the Secret Garden.
Rochester Hotel and Bar, 5:00-7:30 pm

Please consider a membership today!