"A FINE EMBLEM OR A NICE BOOK SOLVES THE GIFT PROBLEM"

THE BLACK PROPHET

One of the most talked-of books of the hour. Many call it "The Uncle Tom's Cabin of Catholicism." It is a powerful story written in the author's best and most convincing style. It is thrilling, at times almost tragic, revealing anew with what an iron hand the Church of Rome dominates its priesthood and its membership. While it is one of the most fascinating of naratives, it produces, at the same time, one of the strongest arraignments of Catholicism that has ever been published. It leaves unsaid nothing that should be said of Romanism.

If you want to read a book that will thrill your soul, if you want to know how hard it is for a Catholic priest to be a good man, if you want to know some of the evils of the confessional, if you want to know how the public school is being undermined, if you want to know how some Protestant churches and political parties are manipulated by Rome, if you want to know how every country where Rome has controlled has been blighted and ignorance and superstitution abound, if you want a thousand facts about the most colossal fraud that was ever conceived, read "The Black Prophet."

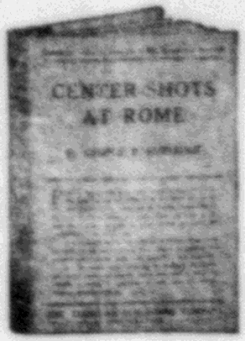
CENTER-SHOTS AT ROME



This book contains a series of seven addresses delivered before packed houses in Columbus, O. They aroused tremendous interest and enthusiasm; thousands of people were turned away, not being able to get into the hall. It is doubtful if any modern writer has so successfully employed the shafts of wit and logic and keen research in exposing this medieval politico-religious body to the limelight of public judgment. The book is what the title indicates. Every sentence is a "center shot." The author's shots at the Papacy, the priesthood and the confessional leave these institutions sprawled on the battlefield, helpless. It is the author's earnest wish that the reading of this volume may inspire every thoughtful, liberty-loving American to follow his example and help in turning the searchlight of truth upon this gigantic, religious, predatory syndicate. You can do your part by seeing that your copy of the book is passed around among your friends.

THE MOAN OF THE TIBER

The bitterness of slavery did not entirely pass from our country when the "blacks" were freed. In a very different and unexpected form it exists today, all unknown to the majority of our freedom-loving people. It is time that we should be aroused to this sinister encroachment upon our rights as American citizens. This book exposes the terrible conditions of servitude existing in the so-called "Houses of the Good Shepherd," which, in some unaccountable way, seem able to escape all public supervision or inspection. It reads like a romance, but it is much better, because it is true to facts. Every lover of truth, every citizen who wants to know the real conditions as they exist in this country today, should not only read this book, but persuade his friends to read it.

A WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

This is one of the latest additions to anti-Catholic literature. It is a timely warning to every Christian follower who is seeking the inside facts of Rome's latest invention—a deception thrust upon us in the guise of "brotherly love"—a masked insult to Protestant intelligence. This latest move upon the part of the ever-working Papal machine is the preposterous, presumptuous, impossible task of uniting Protestants and Romanists on religious grounds. "A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing" fully exposes these hypocritical pretenses. It is a book that all America should read. It shows in a lucid manner the enmity of Romanism for Protestantism as none other than a gifted writer could produce.

HELL AT MIDNIGHT IN SPRINGFIELD—W. Lloyd Clark.

The book that can't stop. The people still clamoring for it. This is the book that raised hades in the federal courts when it was first printed ten years ago. It is the only book ever written exposing "Benedictine," made by the monks in their monasteries to be sold and used in dives and houses of ill fame throughout the world. No woman is safe where this stuff is sold. When you read this book you will know why the Catholic church is working for the return of the saloon. The author says, "It is the greatest book I ever wrote."

Single copy, 50 cents. 4 copies any our 50c books sent postpaid for $1, all alike or assorted.

"PRIEST AND WOMAN"

By Mrs. Wm. Lloyd Clark

A book for women only. It is a companion to The Devil's Prayer Book for men. It is a book skilfully compiled by an American woman for wives, mothers and daughters. It should be kept out of the hands of children, but placed in the hands of every adult woman in the nation. Following is a brief synopsis of the contents: The Priest and the Confessional, the Enemies of Virtue; Slavery that unfits girls to become mothers; Rome's infant murder factories; the birth record of a Roman convent and what was done with the infants. Some of the questions asked little girls in the confessional box as taken from standard Catholic works; What would a husband do if he could hear the questions a priest puts to his wife in confession?

Single copy, 50 cents. 4 copies any our 50c books sent postpaid for $1, all alike or assorted.

"CONVENT HORROR"

By Barbara Ubryck

The accurate and official story of a beautiful girl outraged by a lustful Roman priest and left to languish for 21 years in a loathsome Papal dungeon eight by six feet square. No sanitary provisions. No light or sunshine. No fresh air or ventilation. Compelled to live on black bread, moldy potatoes and stale water. No change of clothing, garments rotted away and the poor victim of priestly lust and Roman malice as naked as a wild beast when discovered and liberated. Outraged night after night by a lustful Roman brute, then left to suffer the most unspeakable horrors ever endured by a human being for twenty-one years. A correct and truthful story of the most horrible thing in human history. We have printed a large edition of this book. We are appealing to the patriots to read it and help us get it into the homes of the people. Front cover contains an illustration showing the actual condition of the woman when found. The fastest selling book ever placed in the hands of agents.

"DEVIL'S PRAYER BOOK"

By Wm. Lloyd Clark

"The Devil's Prayer Book," an exposure of auricular confession as practiced by the Roman Catholic Church. It is a great eye opener for husbands, fathers and brothers. No male relative is allowed to be in the confessional or to be so located that he can hear the questions asked his wife, sister or sweetheart during the ordeal of confession. When you read this book you will know why [illegible] book has an illustration showing [illegible] attitude or poise of both priest and woman [illegible] confession. It also publishes the questions which the priest is compelled to ask his female dupe through the hole in the wall before he can grant an absolution. It also contains other valuable information.

Single copy, 50 cents. 4 copies any our 50c books sent postpaid for $1, all alike or assorted.

"RUM, RAGS AND RELIGION"

By O. W. Owen

Unmasking Dope, Booze, Romanism and Political Harlotry from the opium dens of Calcutta to the "Black Hole" of Chicago. The only book of its kind ever written in the world. It took The Rail Splitter Gang to turn it out. Limber tails and soft sodders lack the nerve. Because of the desperate fight that is being made by the Knights of Columbus and the Roman Hierarchy to reinstate the saloon this book is seriously needed.

Single copy, 50 cents. 4 copies any our 50c books sent postpaid for $1, all alike or assorted.

"BEHIND CONVENT BARS"

By Wm. Lloyd Clark

Without question the greatest exposure of convent life as it is lived in America and other countries ever published. Partial contents: Houses of the Good Shepherd. Catholic convents need inspection. Model bill for convent inspection. Ingersoll on convents. How the old world is spewing them out. A hell upon earth. Horrors of a nunnery. A vivid description of convent life. A peep into convent life. A girl's hectic struggle for life. The Nun's dream. A human marpiot. What are nunneries for? Women the slaves of the church. Thrilling exposures of convents by women who escaped. Convents operated in violation of law. Used as a rendezvous for drunken priests. Criminal institutions where womanhood is outraged by celibate priests. Census takers denied entrance to convents. Thousands of women held prisoners against their wills. Women forced to live and labor in unsanitary rooms and breathe the foul air of buildings that are never ventilated. Inmates die and buried without knowledge of government. Cruel penances exacted such as making the form of the cross on the floor with their tongues, and drinking the water in which the mother superior has washed her feet. Work for convent inspection by distributing this book.
